MODULE ONE WORKSHEET

To be truly clear on where you stand financially, its best to lay it out, so you can see it in black and white. You need to be specific and honest and it's likely going to get uncomfortable and maybe even freak you out a bit, but trust me, it's a necessary evil.

So without further adieu, time to get real.

Fill in the chart, honestly and fully. If you are unsure about an amount, go back to it, but GO BACK, don't leave it blank. This table is just to identify your monthly expenses.
